Agencies and Resources

The Indiana Commission for Higher Education

Created in 1971 by an act of the General Assembly and signed into law by then-Governor Edgar Whitcomb, the Indiana Commission for Higher Education is now in its fourth decade of service to the State of Indiana. The Commission is a 14-member public body created to define the educational missions of public colleges and universities; plan and coordinate Indiana's state-supported system of post-high school education, taking into account the plans and interests of independent colleges and universities; review both operating budget and capital budget appropriation requests from public institutions; approve or disapprove for public institutions the establishment of any new branches, campuses, extension centers, colleges or schools; approve or disapprove for public institutions the offering of any additional associate, baccalaureate or graduate degree or certificate program of two semesters or more in duration; review all programs of public institutions and make recommendations to the governing board of the institution, the Governor, and the General Assembly concerning the funding and the disposition of these programs; and, distribute student financial aid from state aid programs. To learn more about the Commission or about attending college in Indiana, visit in.gov/che and www.learnmoreindiana.org.

Finish Your Degree

Enacted by the 2015 Indiana General Assembly, You Can. Go Back. is a statewide campaign that aims to help the 750,000+ Hoosier adults with some college but no degree finish what they started. With $7.5 million in state grants available for adult students, the Indiana Commission for Higher Education (CHE) is reaching out to Hoosiers directly and connecting them with Indiana colleges that are committed to eliminating barriers for returning adults. Many colleges are offering special programs and incentives—including flexible class schedules and online courses, college credit for work and military experience, grade- and debt-forgiveness programs—as well as scholarships, tuition discounts and $1,000 in state grants on a first-come, first-serve basis for qualifying students. For more information, visit www.youcangoback.org.

Indiana College Network

The Indiana College Network (ICN) is a partnership of Indiana's colleges and universities working together to provide higher education to Indiana citizens wherever they live and work. Through its website, ICN provides information about distance learning opportunities available in Indiana. The partner institutions' distance education degree and certificate programs consist of actual college classes that are equivalent to on-campus courses. To learn more about ICN, call the ICN Student Services Center at 1-800-426-8899, e-mail info@icn.org or visit www.icn.org.

Federal Financial Aid Information

The U.S. Department of Education offers student financial assistance through Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, PLUS Loans, Consolidation Loans, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, Work-Study and Perkins Loans. To be eligible for aid, students must demonstrate financial need, have a high school diploma or GED, plan to enroll as a regular student in an eligible program, be a U.S. citizen or an eligible noncitizen, have a valid Social Security number, make satisfactory academic progress, and sign a statement of educational purpose and a certification statement on overpayment and default.

Students interested in receiving financial aid must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 10 (please allow 5-7 business days for processing) of the academic year the applicant plans to enroll. Forms are available through high school guidance offices, college financial aid offices or by contacting the U.S. Department of Education at 1-800-USA-LEARN. To complete the form online, visit fafsa.ed.gov.

THE FEDERAL STUDENT AID INFORMATION CENTER can answer your student aid questions and offer help filling out the FAFSA. Contact the FSAIC at 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

Grant:	Financial aid, often based on financial need, that does not need to be repaid (unless, for example, you withdraw from school and owe a refund).
Loan:	Borrowed money which must be repaid with interest.
Work-Study:	A federal student aid program that provides part-time employment while you are enrolled in school to help pay your education expenses.

Federal Pell Grants

Federal Pell Grants are given to students depending on financial need, cost of attendance, full-time or part-time status, and more. The maximum award is $5,815 for 2016-2017 and the maximum award changes yearly. A Federal Pell Grant does not need to be repaid, unlike a loan, except under certain circumstances. If your parent or guardian was a member of the U.S. Armed Forces and died as a result of military service performed in Iraq or Afghanistan after the events of 9/11, you may be eligible for additional Federal Pell Grant funds if you were less than 24 years old or enrolled in college at the time of your parent or guardian's death. To apply, applicants must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 10 (please allow 5-7 business days for processing) of the academic year the applicant plans to enroll and again every year they continue to enroll.

AmeriCorps

AmeriCorps programs offer funds for postsecondary education in return for community service work. The funds can be used for either current educational expenses or to repay federal student loans. For more information, call 1-800-942-2677, visit www.americorps.gov or write to: The Corporation for National Community Service, 1201 New York Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20005.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

A Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant is for undergraduate students with exceptional financial need. It is a campus-based aid that is administered directly by the financial aid office at each participating school. The amount of scholarship students may receive depends on financial need, time of application, the amount of other aid the student receives, and the availability of funds at the school. Unlike the Federal Pell Grant Program, FSEOG awards are first-come, first-serve. Once the school's FSEOG funds have been awarded, no more awards can be made for that year. Students should apply as early as possible by filling out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 10 (please allow 5-7 business days for processing) of the academic year the applicant plans to enroll. Students that receive Pell Grants and have the most financial need will receive FSEOGs first.

TEACH Grant Program

The TEACH Grant is for students who are studying to become a teacher and plan to teach in a high-need field in a low-income area. The grant provides up to $4,000 per year to students that meet certain requirements. In order to receive the grant, you must sign a TEACH Grant Agreement to Serve in which you agree to teach in a high-need field at a school or educational service agency that serves students from low-income families for at least four (4) academic years within eight years of completing the course of study for which you received the grant. If you do not complete the teaching obligation, the funds you received will be converted to a Direct Unsubsidized Loan. To apply for the grant, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 10 (please allow 5-7 business days for processing); be enrolled as an undergraduate, post baccalaureate, or graduate student at a school that participates in the TEACH Grant Program; meet certain academic achievements; receive TEACH Grant counseling; and sign a TEACH Grant Agreement to Serve.
